ANXIETY IN LONDON

Concerning the War News From Mashonaland.

THE RUMOR NOT CONFIRMED.

Many Excellent Reasons for Believing That the Massacre of the British Expedition in South Africa Did Take Place—Other Foreign News.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The report of the massacre of a number of the Mashonaland pioneers is not credited in London, and at the office of the British South African company nothing has been heard justifying the rumor. However, it has caused much anxiety, as it is well known King Lobengula's warriors are generally hostile to the settlement of Mashonaland, and that the king has had much difficulty in restraining them from an attack upon the whites. The Matabels have heretofore had free reign in Mashonaland, plundering the inhabitants and carrying them off into slavery.

Since the arrival of the British, the people of Mashonaland no longer stand in terror of these warriors, and it is possible that their attitude may have provoked the Matabels to war. The latter from the most powerful military nation in South Africa, can put 25,000 warriors in the field, and are well organized and drilled. At last accounts the British expedition was at Fort Hampden and was preparing to explore the country for mines and agricultural uses. The expedition is about 700 strong and well provided with light artillery and the best breech-loading rifles.

Serious Trouble in Switzerland.

BERNE, Oct. 29.—Telegrams from Fribourg, capital of the canton of Fribourg, state that considerable ill-feeling was caused between the opposing parties because of the result of the elections which took place there on Sunday last. The Conservatives were accused by the Radicals of carrying the elections by unfair means and with having falsified the ballots. Violent crimination and recrimination has been indulged in to-day when serious conflicts occurred. The overthrow of the cantonal government is threatened by the Radicals, who are fully armed.

The appeals made by the ultramontanes of the canton against the popular vote taken on Oct. 5 last, when a majority declared in favor of a revision of the constitution of the canton, have been rejected by the unanimous vote of the federation.

Making it Hot for Stanley.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The friends of the late Maj. Barttelot are intensely embittered by Stanley's insinuation against the character of the major, and it is stated that they have sent to America for a copy of a narrative published in one of the New York papers many years ago, regarding Stanley, showing that he is not a fit person to criticize Maj. Barttelot. It is admitted that Barttelot's manner was by no means engaging, but it is contended by his friends that his faults were trivial in comparison with those of several of his covert traducees.

Uprising of Peasants.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—The correspondent of The Telegraph at St. Petersburg says the minister of the interior has advised confirming the reports of general uprisings of the peasantry in many districts. The situation is especially alarming at Kharkoff and Yekaterinopol. Nine thousand troops are operating against the peasants, who swear that death is preferable to serfdom. The peasants are destroying much property and pillaging in all directions. The minister of the interior has abolished all peasants' rights in the disturbed district.

The King of Holland's Illness.

THE HAGUE, Oct. 29.—Dr. Mackay, minister of the colonies, yesterday announced to the parliament of Holland, all the members of both houses being in their seats, that in the opinion of the royal physicians who had examined the king, the illness of his majesty was of so grave a nature as to incapacitate him from performing the duties of the kingly office. Parliament was therefore requested to make the declaration prescribed by the constitution. The chambers will reassemble to-morrow, when its action will be announced.

Blood Already Spilt.

BERNE, Oct. 29.—Advices have been received here from Lugano, a capital of the canton of Ticino, to the effect that fighting has taken place between the Federal troops and the dissatisfied Liberals. Bloodshed has already occurred. The receipt of this report has caused a renewal of the intense excitement which recently pervaded the disturbed district, and public anxiety as to the final outcome of Swiss internecine troubles has received a marked impetus.

Mutiny of Siberian Convicts.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 29.—Advices from Yakutsk state that another mutiny of Siberian convicts has occurred on board a steamer on the river Lena. Villagers assisted the mutineers to disarm their guards, and the vessel was allowed to drift for want of management. Several of the convicts escaped, but the government sent troops to look for them, and the soldiers killed two and recaptured five of the fugitives.

Prisoners Tortured to Death.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—It is reported from Constantinople that the Austrian and British ambassadors to the porte have remonstrated with the sultan on the cruel treatment of Armenian prisoners, several of whom, including the young Armenian who attempted to murder the arch priest Succias, have been tortured to death in the prison of Constantinople.

LABOR TROUBLES.

Almost a Tie-Up of Railroads at Albuquerque—The Telegraphers.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Oct. 29.—An order for a general tie-up on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe and Atlantic and Pacific roads was about to be given out here yesterday afternoon. A strike among the yard switchmen here has been in progress for several days, and the switching has been done by Division Superintendent Mudge, Trainmaster Easley and the yardmasters.

Yesterday when Freight Conductor Gifford arrived, he was ordered to make up his train, or consider himself discharged. He accepted the discharge and in a few minutes a meeting of the passenger and freight conductors, engineers, firemen, switchmen, brakemen and trainmen generally was held, and it was agreed to order a general tie-up. They rescinded the order on being informed that the division superintendent regretted his action and had made up the train himself and thereby annulled the discharge.

Telegraphers Walk Out at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 29.—At the Western Union telegraph office, at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, two more operators were discharged and their places were ordered filled by other employees, who refused to take their places. The first operator refusing was immediately discharged, whereupon some twelve or fifteen of the best men donned their coats and walked out. Some of the strikers are not members of the union, and state that the discharge of their companions was the only cause of their walking out.

Brotherhood Men Discharged.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 29.—Two Western Union operators, members of the Brotherhood of Telegraphers, were discharged here yesterday by Chief Operator Bronson. No reason was given them for their dismissal, but it was intimated that they were discharged because they were Brotherhood men. One of them denied belonging to the order, and was taken back pending investigation.

FIGHTING FOR LOVE.

A Rivalry Between Two Young Men Ends in a Murder.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 29.—Lemuel Allen, a young man of prominence in Ansonville, this state, accompanied Miss Grace Green to a dance near that place last night, and while the affair was at its height, Julius Tyson, an old admirer of Miss Green, called young Allen out of the room. The young men present knew what unfriendly relations existed between the two, and several of the crowd followed them. As they neared the place where the young men had stopped, they heard them talking in a loud tone.

They rushed up to them, but by the time they reached the spot Tyson had his knife out and was literally chopping Allen. They tried in vain to separate the rivals, but they seemed bent on killing each other. Allen reached for his pistol and with a steady aim pulled the trigger. The ball took effect in Tyson's temple. He soon fell to the ground dead. Allen made no attempt to escape, but went to the officers and gave himself up, saying that it was in self-defense, and his love for the young woman demanded that he should put Tyson out of the way.

WHOLESALE SMUGGLING.

Canada Claims a Loss of Half a Million Dollars in Duties.

QUEBEC, Oct. 29.—Two barrels of whisky were seized yesterday buried in a manure pile on a farm near St. Anne De Beaupre. Smuggling is going on around this city and in the lower St. Lawrence region to an enormous extent. The local press demand the establishment of a revenue cutter service to suppress the traffic.

It is estimated that by these smuggling operations the government has lost at least $500,000 in duties in the last two years. The people in most of the parishes bordering on the river below here are believed to be in league with the smugglers. The cardinal archbishop has issued a letter to his flock on the evils of the liquor traffic, strongly condemnatory of the smugglers, who are to be henceforth deprived of the benefit of the sacraments of the church.

THE HENNESSY ASSASSINATION.

Two Folding Guns Found Near the Scene of the Murder.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 29.—Two folding guns supposed to have been used in the Hennessy assassination, were found yesterday on Cypress street, near the scene of the murder, by a workhouse gang. The important point relative to the finding of these guns is that two of the assassins were seen fleeing past there the night of the assassination and were identified by Lanagan. Both guns were recently discharged.

Thomas Duffly, who shot Scofield, one of the Italian prisoners in the parish prison on the 17th inst., was released under $2,000 bonds. Scofield is recovering.

The Hennessy assassination case was yesterday postponed indefinitely on motion of the state. The prisoners were remanded without benefit of bail.

German Prisoner Committed Suicide.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Oct. 29.—Ferdinand Sander, a German printer, committed suicide yesterday afternoon by drowning. He had been drunk and was arrested. He was released under promise to leave town. Accompanied by a policeman he started to the depot. On his way down he started toward the river, saying he wanted to wash his hands. On reaching the bank he jumped in, but as there was more mud than water, the policeman jumped after him. Sander waded on until he got into deep water and deliberately lay down and was washed down the stream and drowned.

RAILROAD WRECKS.

Disasters on Several Different Lines.

WRECK OF A CIRCUS TRAIN.

Two Men Killed and Another Seriously Injured Near Monticello, Georgia—A Florida Train Jumps the Track. Freight Wrecks—A Number of People Killed on Crossings.

MACON, Ga., Oct. 29.—Barnum's circus train in five sections left here yesterday morning at 6 o'clock for Athens, on the Covington and Macon road. Five miles from Monticello the train men lost control of the third section on a long down-grade and it dashed into the rear of the second section on the end of which was the cook's car, preceded by a car containing horses.

A man named Kelly, of Kalamazoo, Mich., in the car was killed, and another man, name unknown, was badly hurt. Eight horses in the forward car were killed. The two engines pulling the third section were derailed and badly damaged, as were six or eight cars following. The fireman of the first engine, Lewis Glenn, was instantly killed. The engineers of both engines and the other fireman jumped. The show will lose two or three appointments.

ON THE TRACK TOO LONG.

Two Civil Engineers Killed By a Train on the New York and New Haven Road.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 29.—Edward Cooper, of New York, and James Henderson, of Ohio, civil engineers in the employ of the New York and New Haven railroad, were instantly killed on the Niantic bridge at East Lyme yesterday.

The accident was a peculiar one. The two victims were employed in constructing a double track of the Shore Line and were walking along the bridge, evidently cognizant that the passenger train which left New London at 7:43 was steaming down upon them. The train could be seen a quarter of a mile, and the men evidently thought they had plenty of time to get out of the way, but when near the end of the bridge they were struck by the pilot of the engine and thrown some distance on the side of the track. Both bodies were horribly mangled. The men were young, and it seems unaccountable that they should have taken such a risk of remaining on the track.

Two Men Injured in a Collision.

WARSAW, Ind., Oct. 29.—A passenger train on the El River division of the Wabash railroad, while rounding a sharp curve in Jackson township, twelve miles southeast of this city, struck a hand car on which were five section men. All endeavored to jump before the engine struck the car, and three succeeded in doing so and escaped with a few slight bruises, while the other two, Patrick Shea and Dennis O'Honihan were seriously injured, the latter's injuries being of an internal nature, and his recovery is doubtful.

Killed on a Crossing.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 29.—Dewey Underwood, one of the most noted wing shots in the state, president of the Kansas City Driving Park association, and president of the Gun club, was driving across the Chicago and Alton track at Fifteenth street at 6 o'clock yesterday morning when his buggy was struck by a westbound passenger train, killing Mr. Underwood instantly. Deceased was about 50 years of age.

Train Jumped the Track.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 29.—An Orlando, Fla., special to The Times-Union says: The southbound morning train on the South Florida railroad jumped the track two miles north of this city at half-past 10 o'clock yesterday. Fireman Oscar Whitten was killed, and Engineer John O'Rourke seriously hurt. The passengers escaped without injury.

Freight Train Derailed.

MINNEAPOLIS, Oct. 29.—A Creston, Iowa, special to The Tribune says: By the derailling of a freight train east of Creston late last night, a train following collided, wrecking seven cars and an engine, and scalding Engineer Clapp, Fireman McCarty and Brakeman Ervin. Their injuries are painful but not fatal.

Brakeman Killed.

SEYMOUR, Ind., Oct. 29.—D. M. Bond, a brakeman on the Jeffersonville, Madison and Indianapolis local freight, was instantly killed here while uncoupling cars. His foot was caught in a guard-rail, throwing him under the train. Bond resided in Jeffersonville and was married.

Repair Men Killed.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29.—Peter McMullen and Joseph Bovaelli, repair men on the Reading railroad, were struck by a train yesterday and killed.

Minstrel Killed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Minstrel McGrath, of 505 West Twenty-Sixth street, was instantly killed to-day by an elevated train.

Exhibition a Financial Failure.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—By the financial report of the exhibition recently held in Edinburgh, a deficit of £30,000 is shown. This more than absorbs the guarantee fund of £26,000. The affairs of the exhibition have heretofore been placed in liquidation.

A Judge Stricken Down.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 29.—A special to The Inquirer, from Altoona, says: Hon. Robert L. Johnson, of Ebensburg, president judge of Cambria county, was stricken with apoplexy yesterday evening, death ensuing in a short time. He was 70 years old.

MYSTERY EXPLAINED.

An Old Murder in Brown County Revived by a Death-Bed Confession.

EDINBURG, Ind., Oct. 29.—About the year of 1874 or 1875, a stock-buyer named Jamison, from Ohio, made his appearance in Brown county, and was known to carry big sums of money with him. He stopped at the residence of one John Curry, for the night, and seems to not have been seen or heard of afterward.

His mysterious disappearance at the time created considerable stir and talk, as Curry bore an unsavory reputation and was suspected of many lesser crimes. The matter of Jamison's disappearance soon blew over, however, and has been buried in profound silence ever since until a few days ago, when William P. Taggart, who was brought to death's door, revealed the terrible secret which had been weighing on him for years. Just about ten minutes before his death he stated to those about him that he and Curry and another man had murdered Jamison for his money, and did secure $1,500 cash off his person.

Curry has been dead some six years, and the whereabouts of the other man, if still living, are not stated. Taggart was a man who drank lots of whisky, but was never suspected, and stood reasonably well with his neighbors. He was well known in that part of the country, and at that time was worth considerable amount of money. He is well connected, and the matter of the revelation has been kept very quiet, but has crept out.

GAS FAMINE.

Shutting Off the Supply a Severe Blow to Iron Manufacturers.

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 29.—The order of the Philadelphia Natural Gas company, withdrawing fuel from piddling furnaces which goes into effect to-day, is a hard blow to the iron manufacturers. It is estimated that 500 furnaces will undergo enforced idleness by the order until they can be prepared for the use of coal. It is rumored that the gas supply may be again furnished but the opinion expressed by the manufacturers is that unless they can secure their gas supply from other sources they must return to the use of coal permanently. Several manufacturers have already commenced to arrange their furnaces for the use of coal.

The shortage of gas was general throughout Pittsburgh and Allegheny yesterday. A large proportion of the people who use gas fires were compelled to burn wood or coal. In some parts of the city there was no gas supply. The mills and furnaces consume about two-fifths of the gas furnished. When this supply is cut off from the mills, the gas will be turned into the mains for domestic purposes, and it is believed will furnish a sufficient supply for all requirements.

The coal operators are greatly pleased over the prospect that the mill owners will return to the use of coal. The demand will be heavy and a revival of business and increased prices are expected.

An Old River Man Dead.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 29.—Capt. James S. Wise died at 12 o'clock yesterday of dropsy at his home in Home City. Mr. Wise was 59 years of age and was born in Pennsylvania. He was for years well known in river circles, and a famous river packet was named after him. He came to this city when quite young, and has been here ever since. Mr. Wise was a poor boy and worked his way until he became quite wealthy.

Arrested for Stealing.

NEWARK, O., Oct. 29.—Felix Robertson, formerly township trustee and soldiers' relief commissioner, and who disgraced those two offices and his friends by running away with Mrs. Charles Allen, was arrested by the police here yesterday charged with stealing over $1,000 from a woman in Circleville. Part of the money was found on his person. He will be taken to Circleville.

Sheriff Not Through the Neck.

WILLIAMSBURG, Ky., Oct. 29.—M. A. Moore, a sheriff of Whitley county, had a difficulty with John Thomas, the marshal of Williamsburg last night, in which Thomas was shot through the neck and dangerously if not fatally wounded and Joseph Bridgeford, a spectator, was shot in the hip. The difficulty took place at the depot in Williamsburg, and was the result of a former quarrel.

Mortgage Broker Disappears.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—W. S. Wharton, a chattel mortgage broker, has left the city and also creditors whose accounts will amount to $50,000. His two heaviest victims are the United States Loan company and the Chicago Trust and Savings bank. He owes the first named institution $16,000 and the bank $26,000. It is believed that he fled to Canada.

Stanley Starts for America.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Stanley started at noon yesterday for Liverpool on their way to America. A large party of friends accompanied them to Euston station to bid them farewell, and a crowd also assembled and cheered the illustrious traveller and his wife as they entered the station.

Touched Off a Can of Powder.

NEWARK, O., Oct. 29.—Two boys, named Charles Kuppinger and Walter Herschline, aged about 6 years, while playing with a can of powder, touched a match to it. The result was a terrible explosion. Young Kuppinger was terribly burned about the head and face, and it is feared that he may lose his sight.

Two and a Half Million Capital.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 29.—An agent of an eastern syndicate, of which C. P. Huntington is said to be the principal backer, is in the city making estimates on the Ensign car works, on which the syndicate has an option. The works employ over 2,000 men, and the plant is valued at $2,500,000.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1890.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Congress,
HON. THOMAS H. PAYNTER, of Greenup County.

Will the day laborers please point out a single instance where the McKinley bill has benefited them? They are certainly entitled to some benefit from the measure, as it has advanced the cost of living greatly.

It looks like the members of the Con. are getting tired of so much talk. They adopted a resolution yesterday to suppress all printed records and discharge the stenographers, and then decided to adjourn Friday until November 6th.

If the new Democratic Executive Committee wants to put a great big feather in its cap, let it get out the vote and give Tom Paynter 800 majority in this county next Tuesday. With some good, effective work, the majority can be made even larger than that.

The Porter census is so skillfully arranged as to get rid of about twenty Democratic Congressmen. The people should meet the assault upon their rights by carrying for the Democratic party every close Congressional district at the election of next week.—Enquirer.

One may gather some idea of the political revolution in Pennsylvania from the statement that in Chester County alone there are 1,800 independent Republicans pledged to vote for Pattison, the Democratic nominee for Governor. It looks like Quayism is doomed, for certain.

Wonder if the ten or twelve citizens who own most of the real estate in Chester will act on the suggestion thrown out by the BULLETIN a few days ago? They have it in their power to do much in a few years to build up Mayeville and at the same time add greatly to their wealth.

The appeal to manufacturers to "quote lower prices" on goods in order to keep down popular indignation at the new series of high tariff robberies is so affecting that those hard-hearted monopolists must at last feel that they have asked too much in return for the funds they contributed for the election of a Republican Congress.—Courier-Journal.

The Walton Iron Works of Cincinnati, mentioned a few days ago, furnished the columns and girders for the "Cox Building" of this city. The plant is one of the largest of the kind in the Queen City, and if the proprietors are seeking a new location, why shouldn't Maysville people bestir themselves and try to bring the works here? "Nothing venture, nothing won."

Writing to the statement that under the McKinley bill silks have not advanced, the Covington Commonwealth very pertinently says: "Of course not. Neither has purple nor fine linen, nor diamonds. The things which have advanced in price are the things the people are compelled to purchase. The prices of the monopolist's luxuries remain as they have been."

You need not be surprised if the Democrats carry nearly all the Congressional districts in Iowa next Tuesday. A year ago they polled a majority of votes in five of the eleven districts, and the Republican majority was only 157 in another district and 450 in still another. And since then, the heaven of tariff reform has been working nicely in that once Republican stronghold.

CONNECTICUT is a Democratic State. Rhode Island is a Democratic State. Massachusetts and New Hampshire are doubtful. In the late Vermont election the Republican majority was cut down one-half. The State of Reciprocity Blaine and Prohibitory Tariff Reed is the only corner of New England where the Republican grip has not been seriously loosened.

Kentucky and every district within her bounds must keep in line. Let the Democrats of the Ninth do their duty next Tuesday.

Up Go the Prices.

CHICAGO, October 27.—A Herald special from Indianapolis, Ind., says: "The lounge manufacturers of this city held a meeting Saturday night, and unanimously decided that prices should be raised. It was said that Brussels, velvets and other kind of carpets had advanced materially in price under the McKinley bill as well as other material that is used in the manufacture of lounges, and they could no longer sell at the old prices. The trade will be notified at once of the advance, and the price list will be re-arranged at another meeting."

A JIM-DANDY.

That's What Capt. Bruce, Judge Thomas' Nominee for Congress, Seems to Be.

Running on the Alliance Platform, Endorses the McKinley Bill and Favors Free Trade.

The people of this district have heard a good deal lately of Captain Alexander Bruce of Lewis County.

It is pretty generally known that he is the gentleman who was nominated for Congress on Oct. 16th by a few of the Republican members of the Lewis County Alliance, through the skilful manipulations of Judge Thomas, and it is also well known that he was endorsed on the 18th by Judge Thomas' Republican convention at this place.

The BULLETIN hasn't any personal acquaintance with Mr. Bruce, but it has taken for granted all along that he is a man of good common sense at least.

But fresh information in regard to the Captain has been received. He has opened his mouth and talked, and the people of the district must judge him by his words.

The following interesting communication was received last night:

VANCOUVER, Ky., Oct. 28th, 1890.

Ed Buletin: At a dance at Chas. Houk's a few miles back of this city, Mr. Bruce, Republican candidate for Congress, was interviewed by a citizen. He answered the following questions:

What platform are you running on?
Ans. "The Alliance platform adopted at St. Louis."

What do you think of the McKinley bill?
Ans. "It is a good bill and I am in favor of it."

What is your position on the tariff?
Ans. "I am a little different from every-body on that question. I believe we ought to let all the ships come in free with the merchandise from all nations, and have free trade with everybody."

How Mr. Bruce harmonizes these opinions is only known to the tact of a man who can run on the St. Louis platform and be endorsed by a Republican convention. REPORTER.

Evidently, the Captain is like the old darkey who tried to set his trap so as to "catch 'em a-comin' and a-gwine." His platform is the Alliance platform adopted at St. Louis, he endorses the McKinley bill and he favors "free trade with everybody."

It looks like Judge Thomas was guilty of gross imposition on his party when he forced this man forward as its nominee for Congress.

HOW WILL YOU VOTE?

Shall the Republican System of Increasing the Burden of Taxation be Endorsed?

Boston, October 26.—The New England Reform League has issued an address to the voters, in which it says that "the one question which mostly concerns us all is whether this new method of the Republicans of reducing the National revenues by increasing the burden of taxation shall be endorsed."

It says further that no tariff bill ever framed has involved such a tremendous disturbance to established industries. The labor and capital which have hitherto been employed to our country's greatest credit and profit are required to give way to these industries which, after twenty-years of high protection, still insist that they cannot live at all except at the public charge.

"A careful study of the new tariff shows," it says, "that the rates have been fixed wholly without regard to any reasonable protection. Whatever the manufacturers have asked for in the way of duties, said Senator Plumb, as a rule, was granted."

"William C. Cronmeyer, Secretary of American Tin Plate Association, asked for and obtained an increase of duty from 1 cent to 2.2 cents a pound upon tin plates, although in a circular dated September 26, 1889, he had declared positively that tin plates could be made and sold at Pittsburg at a profit at present selling prices. If Cronmeyer is to be believed, therefore, this single change in duty means an annual tribute to be paid by our people to Cronmeyer and his associates of $16,000,000, of which $9,000,000 is to be clear profit."

"The truth is that the men by whom the new schedules have been arranged have goods to sell. They know what they want and how to get it. But are you, who have goods to buy, altogether satisfied with the arrangement? Have you any doubt that the voice of organized greed is more potent in the lobbies of Congress than it should be? You can not afford to go to Washington in person whenever your interests as a taxpayer and a consumer are threatened. You rely upon your Representatives to look out for you. You ask nothing of them except that they shall protect you from being plundered."

"We urge you to look into the question, and if you find, as you will find, that Congressman Butterworth (a Republican) is right in asserting that the new tariff imposes an added tribute upon 65,000,000 people for the benefit of a few hundreds, you will know how to express your dissatisfaction at the polls."

Here and There.

Judge Tyler, of Russellville, Brown County, O., is in town to-day.

Mrs. R. K. Hart, of Fleming, is visiting her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph Frazee.

Editor Duley, of the Fleming Times-Democrat, was here this morning and called on the BULLETIN.

Attention, Sir Knights.

What We Claim!

We do not claim to hold a "corner" on the Boots and Shoes of the country. The markets of the world are open to others as well as ourselves, and if they do not secure the advantages offered the fault does not lie at our door.

We do not seek business by disparaging the claims of others.

We DO claim, however, to lay under tribute the best market of the world to supply us, and that market is in America, where is found and used the best leathers, and where, also, is found the highest standard of excellence in workmanship and beauty of designs and styles.

No footwear in the world has the reputation for its lasting qualities and fine styles as that turned out from the factories of America.

It is from the best of these manufactories we call our stock, which for extent and variety is without a rival in the State.

In fine, our qualities we guarantee, and challenge the world to surpass them. We also claim to sell these qualities at a saving to the people of 25 per cent. over other dealers.

Come and see our Fall and Winter stock of Boots and Shoes and you will become our customer.

The throngs that daily fill our house attest the truth of our claims.

The many hundreds who have worn our goods are calling for them again, because they are pleased.

All sales guaranteed.

 the production now stands 'Held by the one of the most artistic military dramas in it which might wound the most sensitive modernized sympathizer with the lost cause, nor is there anything objectionable to the most vigorous waver of the bloody shirt. Its heroes and heroines are all true men and women, and the denouement shows the power of love over even the patriotic impulse. There is one peculiarity about this play. Every speaking character is an important one and the company is excellently fitted for the work."

ODDFELLOWS.

Fifty-fifth Annual Meeting of the State Grand Lodge in Session at Louisville.

Extracts From the Welcome Address and From Grand Master Cox's Report—The Order
 Prosperous.

The Grand Lodge of Kentucky I. O. O.
 F., is in session at Louisville. It is the fifty-fifth annual meeting of the body. In his welcome address, Hon. Thomas R.
 Gordon said:

"Your meeting here prompts me to reflect and ask, Who is our guest? May I be permitted to answer my own question? You represent more than 8,000 Kentucky Oddfellows, than whom there can be found no truer, no nobler men in all this proud old Commonwealth. I make the assertion, and am willing that it may be verified by an investigation, that in any city, town, hamlet or neighborhood in Kentucky, where an Oddfellow's lodge exists, you can find no better citizens, no more worthy members of society than the Oddfellows. While our beloved order does not profess a system of religion, but expressly disclaims any substitute for the work of the church, still, no infidel, no man who does not believe in God as the Creator and Ruler of the universe, has a place in our ranks.
 While we, as an order, disavow all political affiliations, a man who does not love his country and hold himself amenable to its laws can not stand with us. Honesty, integrity, sobriety, belief in God, obedience to law, friendship, love and truth, these are the foundation stones upon which is builded this model structure we love to call Oddfellowship. Another cause of congratulation, I would suggest is, that in our order there is no rank, no class, no caste. . . . Within our beloved ranks we endeavor to banish from existence that 'man's inhumanity to man,' which 'makes countless millions mourn,' and in its stead to cultivate and cherish a broad principle of philanthropy which will induce us to lend a helping hand to a brother in distress, to visit the sick, to bury the dead, to educate the orphan, and, as far as in human power lies, to hasten the coming of that good day when there shall be a spirit of genuine fraternal union, broad enough and strong enough to bind together all nations and all kindreds."

The Committee on Credentials reported two hundred and forty-five representatives from one hundred and sixty-three subordinate lodges, and ninety-three Past Grands were presented and received the Past Official and Grand Lodge degrees.

The Louisville Times says: "The report of William H. Cox, Grand Master, was a model in brevity and conciseness, and, like its eminent author, was business-like in every detail. The following extracts are made from this able report, which is embraced within the unprecedented limit of twenty printed pages:

"Early in November I was importuned to offer a prize banner, collar, etc., for the greatest increase in lodges and membership. Believing that a premium on membership should not be tolerated, and that it was worth as much to-day as seventy years ago to become an Oddfellow, I refused, and determined, if possible to make my term of office as profitable to the order without these things as had been done with them in the past. With this end in view I put on the armor, and flatter myself that in instituting ten subordinate lodges and four Rebekah Degree lodges in this jurisdiction and, adding more than seven hundred to the membership, I have accomplished the greatest work in eighteen years. In my own immediate neighborhood, Mayville, I made many visitations, in all cases gave instructions and in many assisted in conferring degrees."

Thirteen questions as to the construction of and application of the law of the order were submitted to and decided by the Grand Master, who also passed upon three important appeals from subordinate lodges.

"The night of March 27, 1890, will be ever memorable in the minds of the Odd-fellows of Louisville and this jurisdiction.
 The misfortunes of our brethren on this occasion were fully shared by the more fortunate of us. What a day of suspense was the day following; every one eager for some tidings of the lost and maimed.
 As soon as I received word of the afflic-tion of Humboldt Lodge No. 141, a circular was issued making an earnest appeal for assistance."

A copy of the circular and the responses received was then read.

Reports from twenty-five of the twenty-eight District Deputy Grand Masters show the order in the State to be in a highly prosperous condition, and this is confirmed by the statistical and financial report of the Grand Secretary and the Grand Treasurer.

The Grand Lodge was entertained last night by Boone Lodge No. 1, and it was a re-assemble again this morning at 9 o'clock to complete the business of the session.

Twenty-one Years.

Guilty of voluntary manslaughter, and the penalty is fixed at confinement in the penitentiary for twenty-one years. Such is the verdict of the jury in the case of the Commonwealth versus John Crow for killing Thomas O'Donnell.

The arguments in the case were finished late last evening, and the verdict was reported about 9 o'clock. It is learned that some of the jurors favored a life sentence. And it is also learned the defendant is satisfied with the verdict.

Crow's attorneys tried to prove that their client acted in self-defense; that O'Donnell assailed him and that then he wrenched the knife from O'Donnell and dealt the fatal thrust.

A Called Meeting of the Farmers of Mason County.

The farmers of Mason County are requested to meet at the court house in bacco Growers' convention at Lexington, November 12 h, for the purpose of deciding upon some plan that will defeat the great warehouse and manufacture combine. Every farmer should consider it his imperative duty to attend this meeting and give full expression of opinion as to the course best to pursue.

The Travis Murder Case.

The case of the Commonwealth against John Marshall, Toke Singleton and Hiram Stewart, charged with murdering Simon prosecuting and Messrs. A. A. Wade-

MILITARY MATTERS.

Annual Report of General B. H. Grierson.

THE DEPARTMENT OF ARIZONA.

A Number of Changes Recommended to the Secretary of War—Strong Effort Made to Enforce the Recently Passed Lottery Law—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The annual report of Gen. B. H. Grierson, commanding the department of Arizona, has been submitted to the secretary of war. The general invites attention to the advisability of reducing, without delay, the number of Indians in the vicinity of the San Carlos agency by the removal of the Yuma and Mojave Indians. From recent surveys made of the Grand canon of the Colorado, says the report, it has been ascertained that a railroad can be constructed throughout the entire length at such a cost as to make the project feasible.

The construction of a railroad, as indicated, the general says, is a matter of great interest, and liberal encouragement should be given by the government to hasten its completion.

The posts of Forts Lowell, Grant, Union and Bayard, Gen. Grierson says, should in his judgment be abandoned. He recommends that the military reservation at San Pedro, Cal., be enlarged as this point is well known to be decidedly a most available place for a harbor. The post at San Diego, Cal., he says is poorly situated, and should be disposed of and a more suitable reservation obtained without delay, in order that a large post may be permanently established at that important port. This is necessary in connection with the proper fortification of Point Loma for the protection of the city, its harbor, and sea coast near the southern border.

Gen. Grierson recommends that measures be taken at once to secure North Island for the new post. It is noteworthy, he says, to be able to report so few depredations by Indians in the department of Arizona during the past year.

The report recommends that a separate agency be given to the White Mountain Apaches, and a good school established for their use, and the general again calls attention to the necessity for a separate agent for the Jicarilla, who are still attached to the Ute agency.

Enforcing the Lottery Law.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Copies of a circular have been sent out by Attorney General Miller to United States marshals and district attorneys directing their attention to the provisions of the lottery act recently passed by congress, and instructing them to spare no effort in its enforcement.

In his letter to the attorneys, the attorney general says: "Every violation of this law, either by an individual or a corporation, in the dissemination of lottery literature or in any other way, should be brought to the attention of the grand jury, and whatever indictments are found vigorous prosecution should follow, to the end that this nefarious business may be suppressed. In the enforcement of this law the e should be hearty co-operation on the part of the district attorneys, the United States marshals and the post office inspectors."

Use of Electric Wires.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—In accordance with a recent act of congress, the president yesterday appointed Lieut. F. R. Shinn, engineer corps, U. S. A., Professor H. A. Rowland, of Johns Hopkins university, and Andrew Rosewater, municipal engineer of Omaha, Neb., a board to consider and report upon the use of electric wires in the District of Columbia.

Presidential Pardon.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—The president has granted a pardon to Charles H. Condon, convicted in Wyoming of robbing the mails, and sentenced to life imprisonment Feb. 20, 1879. The pardon was granted on account of Condon's condition and his feeble health.

MARRIED OVER A CORPSE.

A Dying Man's Request Carried Out to the Letter.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 29.—Professor Charles Fleming, a music teacher, of this city, and Miss Blanche Lynn, of Williamsport, Pa., were married on Thursday, Oct. 16, in the presence of the girl's father's corpse. The couple had been engaged sometime and were to be married in December.

A few days before the ceremony Fleming was summoned from Philadelphia, where he had gone on business, by a telegram, stating Judge Lynn, his intended bride's father, was dying at Williamsport. He arrived too late to be married before the judge died, but the latter exacted a promise that the marriage should be performed on the day of his funeral, before his coffin. This promise was carried out, the same minister conducting the marriage and funeral services. Mrs. Fleming is still at Williamsport, but her husband is attending to duties in Pittsburgh.

Towboat Boiler Explosion.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct. 29.—W. H. Brown's coal towboat Alex. Swift exploded her boilers at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning while steaming up the Monongahela river, opposite Glenwood. The crew, eight in number, miraculously escaped the shock of the explosion and swam safely to the shore. The Alex. Swift was one of the largest towboats on the river, and was returning from her first trip since she was completely overhauled. The boat is a complete wreck and will be a total loss to her owners.

TROY, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Counselor Cal Wood, sentenced to death by electricity, for killing Leander Pasco, his father-in-law, in Warren county, has served papers on the warden of Dannemora prison for a stay of execution. Wood was to have been executed during the week beginning Nov. 3, but a stay will compel a postponement until the appeal is settled.

A COACHMAN'S BRIDE.

Choice Made by an Heiress at Binghamton—Her Mother Won Over.

ELMIRA, N. Y., Oct. 29.—Port Dickinson is a charming little suburb of Binghamton and is noted for its many charming young ladies. Prominent among them for several years were the three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Phelps. One of them, Miss Lizzie Phelps, has fallen a victim to the wiles of a fickle cupid.

Unknown to the family there sprang up an attachment between the young lady and her father's coachman, William Slattery, that was soon fanned into a flame of love, and they were plighted lovers ere the parents of the young lady were aware of the existing state of affairs. All efforts to thwart the wishes of her heart were of no avail and she made no effort to conceal her love and infatuation for the happy youth.

Finding that all efforts to change the mind of the determined and unyielding victim of Cupid's wiles were positively useless, the mother was won over and is now in perfect harmony with her daughter. Not so with the father and sisters. They are shocked beyond expression. The father and Miss Emma have gone to New York to avoid being present at the ceremony, which takes place in a few days. The youngest sister has also left home and is in Binghamton stopping with relatives.

The mother, however, remains at home with her daughter and sensibly looks upon it as an affair that belongs exclusively to the young lady, and as she is an heiress in her own right she is at liberty to act at her own will and pleasure, especially in a matter that interests the future happiness of herself.

Miss Phelps is a social belle and one of the wealthiest young ladies in the state. She is a niece of the late Judge Phelps and has a cool $100,000 in cash that was left to her by her deceased relative. She is a lovely woman in all that the word implies.

NOT A COWBOY.

A Pennsylvania German Teaches Canadian Farmers an Expensive Lesson.

WOODSTOCK, Ont., Oct. 29.—A Pennsylvania German has been masquerading around here in the guise of a cowboy for some time, buying farms and cutting a pretty wide swath. The field of operation was in a German settlement in Blenheim township near the scene of the Benwell tragedy. The stranger showed checks amounting in value to $250,000, and, whether good or not, they mesmerized the neighborhood. He purchased several farms in the vicinity at high figures, giving notes for payment.

He then took possession and began to dispose of the poultry and stock. He also succeeded in capturing one of Blenheim's fair daughters and they were married. Yesterday he was arrested on the charge of horse-stealing, and it turns out that he is one C. E. Miller, a veterinary surgeon, from Pennsylvania, who is wanted in that state on several charges. It is also claimed that he has half a dozen wives in the states.

Drop in the Price of Ice.

BANGOR, Me., Oct. 29.—A big drop in the price of ice has occurred. Recently men having ice here held it from $3.50 to $1 per ton. To-day these men hunt in vain for purchasers who will take the same stock at $1 per ton. But while the Maine men have lost much by this disappointment, the great bulk of the big ice concerns are actually embarrassed, and dealers and brokers here say that many of them must go down.

Illustrous Prairie Fire.

FREMONT, Neb., Oct. 29.—A disastrous prairie fire has swept over the bottoms of the Platte river, beginning yesterday afternoon and burning far into the night. It is said to have been set by an engine on the Fremont, Elkhorn and Missouri Valley road, at a point four miles east of Fremont, on a farm of W. H. Harvey. About one thousand tons of hay valued at $4,000, were destroyed, with no insurance.

Pilot Boat Captured.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—Pilot boat No. 20, the Edward Cooper, capsized off Fire Island yesterday. She had eight pilots and a crew of six on board. They were all rescued by the Smith Point life saving crew. One sailor named Slink was rescued in an unconscious condition.

Death on the Fair Grounds.

MACON, Ga., Oct. 29.—State Senator J. W. Robbins, of Tall Bottom, was killed instantly here yesterday afternoon in the fair grounds by a falling pole, which was erected for balloon ascension. He was 50 years of age, and leaves a large family.

Instructions in Voting.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 29.—The supreme court, in answer to questions presented by the aldermen of this city, has decided that crosses only at the right of the name within or without the square count in the Australian system of voting.

The Weather.

Threatening weather and rain; increasing, southwesterly to northwesterly winds, and warmer, except colder by Thursday morning in extreme northwestern portion.

Death of Briggs Swift.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 29.—On the Reading road, just three miles north of Avondale's north boundary line, another one of Cincinnati's prominent citizens, Mr. Briggs Swift, breathed his last at 11 o'clock last night, in his 80th year.

Grew Dependent.
